ARIZONA ATTORNEY GENERAL

February 1, 1939,

Governor R.T. (BOB) Jones,
Governor of Arizona,
Capitol,
Phoenix, Arizona.

Dear Sir:

We have considered Senate Bill No. 20, being an act relating to the Superior Court, providing for the appointment of bailiffs.

It is our opinion that this bill is in proper form and does not offend any constitutional provision and will be a valid law if approved by you.

We return herewith the engrossed copy of the bill submitted to us.

Very truly yours,

JOE CONWAY
Attorney General

EARL ANDERSON
Special Assistant
Attorney General.
